

George Woodard Leuba
Born in Paris, Ky. March 16, 1839.
Died Nov. 13, 1866 near Lynchburg, Ky.
Imprisoned on John Brown's Island
during Civil war, died from effects of it.
Son of H. W. Henry and Natharine Woodard
Leuba.

His mother took a mattress in Cocky wagon
with a farmer, whose place she lived and the freed.
Went to get him from the Nashville prison camp.
When she learned he was dying there.
Returned entrance at the gate she stopped at Kearney & entered prison. At the reformatory they let her bring him home where he died.
Home was probably Berea, Ky.

Academia Medicinae Kentuckiensis

IN URBE LOUISVILLE

Instituta

SCIANT OMNES QUORUM INTEREST

Charles C Leuba

Qui Hujus Academiae Professores diligenter audivit cujusque Scientia Medicinae Kalendis Martiis Anno Domini millesimo octingentesimo septuagesimo publice probata est

Doctorem Medicinae

a nobis Praside Curatoribus atque Professoribus hujus Academiae esse creatum privilegiis omnibus quae ad hunc titulum pertinent simul datis

CUJUS REI testimonio hunc DIPLOMATI nomina nostra subscripsimus eique affiximus Academiae sigillum

John Robert [Signature]

W. A. Hughes [Signature]

John Ireland, M.D., Chitt. etc. Pres.
A. B. [Signature]
H. [Signature]
Wm. [Signature]
Philip [Signature]
[Signature]